Politics The Subject At Fancy Farm

An estimated crowd of over 10,000 persons withstood rain to hear politicians at the annual Fancy Farm Picnic Saturday. Highlighting the affair was an appearance by Alabama Gov. George Wallace. The Fancy Farm Picnic traditionally kicks off the fall political campaigns in Kentucky.

The Sheriff's office investigated incidents of disorderly conduct over the weekend.

Gov. Wallace Headlines Annual Fancy Farm Picnic

MAYFIELD, Ky. (AP) — Alabama Gov. George Wallace made no announcement about his presidential candidacy during the weekend but his backers are planning organization meetings in Kentucky this month.

The meetings, scheduled Aug. 11-15, will be held in Louisville, Covington, Lexington, Prestonsburg and Somerset, presumably aimed at putting Wallace into Kentucky's presidential primary next year.

Wallace, who appeared at the annual Fancy Farm picnic Saturday, delivered an attack on high taxes, bureaucratic red tape... "the far left noise-making crowd," busing and crime.

He dwelt on the theme that all of America's big problems are solvable if the politicians would only listen to the solutions of the average man.

"The great average citizen in front of me is going to be the king and queen of politics in 1976 because the intelligencia in this country has taken over in the last number of years and tried to impose their viewpoints on you, and your viewpoint was right all the time and they are beginning to understand," Wallace declared.

Both of Kentucky's gubernatorial nominees also appeared on the program, with Republican Robert Gable accusing Gov. Julian Carroll of failing to lead.

Carroll, in turn, used Wallace's anti-establishment remarks to criticize Gable. He said Gable came to Kentucky to manage his family fortunes. Gable is a McCreary County coal and lumber executive who lives in Frankfort.

Ford Discusses Selling Of Arms To Yugoslavia

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — President Ford told Yugoslavia's President Tito today he will give "my very personal attention" to a Yugoslav request that it be permitted to buy second-line American arms and spare arms parts.

Appearing with Tito to fill in reporters on the results of their talks here, Ford said he also would give attention to economic relations with this independent Communist country.

The Yugoslav leader, in turn, said he essentially agreed with a call by the U.S. President for moderation and flexibility in seeking a Middle East settlement.

Neither man took questions, but Ford went over the agenda of the business sessions the two leaders have had since his arrival Sunday night.

"We did discuss, of course, bilateral relations between Yugoslavia and the United States," Ford said. "These included, of course, economic relations and of course they included our military relations."

Ford, who is in Yugoslavia to boost that country's strongly independent position in the Communist world, then added: "I will give both matters my very personal attention because of their significance."

The possibility that the United States might supply spare parts and other arms to Yugoslavia emerged after a visit here last November by Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger. Yugoslavia had received $695.6 million in U.S. arms under a program terminated in 1967.

Union Sets Vote Tuesday On New Tappan Contract

A contract ratification vote by Local 1068, United Auto Workers union, has been scheduled for Tuesday according to Franklin Rushing, president of the local union.

The union has been on strike at the local Tappan Company, Murray Operation, since June 23 when the union membership voted not to ratify a previous contract offer from the Tappan management.

In announcing the ratification vote this morning Rushing said, "United Auto Workers Local 1068 will hold a ratification meeting on Tuesday, August 5, at Lovett Auditorium on the MSU campus. The meeting will be held during the hours that were originally scheduled for the education meeting."

Tuesday's meeting will begin at 9 a.m., Rushing said, but he predicted it would be several hours before the outcome of the vote on the contract would be known.

Tappan officials have said that if the union does not ratify the current contract proposal, which was offered in a meeting before federal mediator Walter Baer on July 25, prior to 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, August 6, the company will withdraw all proposals from the bargaining table and future negotiations will be forced to start from scratch.

Baer said following the July 25 negotiating session that "if this dispute is not somehow resolved prior to August 6, I can only foresee many more weeks or months of continuing strike."

Approximately 560 employees of the local plant have been idled by the strike which is entering its seventh week. Prior to the strike, the company employed about 675 people and has employed as many as 1,000 in the past.

The local facility was built by the Tappan Co. in 1945.

Terrorists Storm Embassy Building In Malaysia Today; Hostages Seized

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Terrorists seeking freedom for Red Army fanatics jailed in Japan stormed a building housing foreign embassies in Kuala Lumpur today, seized U.S. Consul Robert Stebbins, a Swedish diplomat and other hostages.

Japan, "placing top priority on respect for human life," said it would meet the terrorists' demands.

The terrorists, estimated to number between four and six, shot and wounded three security men during the invasion of the modern, 12-story American International Assurance building here, threatened to blow up the structure, but let a self-declared deadline pass without incident and remained holed up with the hostages on the ninth floor, where the American Embassy has offices. Scores of heavily armed police surrounded the building.

Kuala Lumpur police said the terrorists might be holding as many as 50 hostages. U.S. officials said there were more than 15, and that they included other Americans, Swedes, Australians, Malaysians, and a Japanese and a Singaporean.

In Tokyo, a spokesman for Prime Minister Takeo Miki who is currently in the United States preparing for talks with President Ford, said "the prime minister has agreed that the Japanese government, from the basic position of placing top priority on respect for human life, will accommodate the demands of the terrorists."

He said preparations were being made for the release of seven prisoners from Japanese jails, as demanded by the terrorists, and that Japan Air Lines was preparing a special plane to carry the seven to Kuala Lumpur and pick up the terrorists and take them to wherever they want to go.

However, he said two of the seven had left the Red Army and vowed not to return to the organization, and that police were conferring with all the prisoners to determine whether in fact they wanted to leave Japan.

Theft, Accidents Are Investigated By Murray Police

Thirty plastic letter signs valued at $90 were stolen from the Murray Drive-In Theatre, according to the report made to the Murray Police Department on Saturday.

The report said the signs were in a building which had recently been damaged by fire.

Four traffic accidents were investigated by the Murray Police officers over the weekend, but no injuries were listed on the reports filed by the officers.

One report of vandalism at the home of W. A. Lyons, 1515 Glendale, was filed with the city police. Lyons said his wife was hit with BB shot while out in her yard and the same night they discovered their storm door had three holes made with BB shot, according to the police report.

Right Decision Made When Lola James Was Hired At Hospital

By Nanci Peterson

Someone made the right decision when, 24 years ago, Lola James was hired as a clerk in the business office of the 65-bed Murray-Calloway County Hospital. At 19, Mrs. James helped put her husband, Joe Pat, through college, and watched the institution grow.

"Our hospital just keeps growing and growing. It's gone from 65 beds to 140 beds, and we're still planning additions," explained the very composed, moderately-built woman. "Even though the business office has grown with the hospital, we're still fighting lack of storage space," she added.

Blue eyes reflecting her love of life, Mrs. James said, "I love this hospital... I really grew up here, and its size at that time made it more of a family-atmosphere place to work. Its growth only proves its excellence, and it's wonderful to know we have such fine medical facilities in Murray."

Under Mrs. James, 20 paid employees and several volunteers man the four offices in her charge, which are the admittance office, the insurance office, the visitors control list and the switchboard.

"Through our insurance office we process as many third-party billings as we can, for as long as we can, before finally calling on the patient for payment... it's a service for the patient that the cost of which the hospital absorbs with no additional charge to individuals," she said.

Although she is manager of the four areas, Mrs. James does some "detail work" as well. "I try to do a little of everything, because you never know when you might be in a training position. What good is office management knowledge if you can't tell someone how to audit some figures?" she added.

Returning to her desk after discussing the merits of a revolving patient-card file with the purchasing agent, Mrs. James explained, "Everyone is equal here in this office. We don't give priority treatment to anyone... we just try to listen to human problems and help work out solutions with people in financial distress."

Expecting to move to another area once James finished his education, the family never got around to leaving. "I was from Detroit, where we met, but I loved it here, and my husband, was born and bred here... so we stayed."

Married for 26 years, the couple has a 10-year old son, Ross, who visited the hospital as a patient during his first year. "You look at a hospital entirely differently when you have a loved one there... but I trusted the staff then, as I had before and as I do now," Mrs. James said.

"A hospital is more than people, and more than just numbers and figures, it's skill and trust. Our office just tries to keep things running smoothly for everyone," she said.

A BUSY DAY, EVERYDAY—Lola James, office manager for the business office of the Murray-Calloway County Hospital, has a busy day, everyday, as she supervises the insurance and admittance offices, as well as the patient control lists and switchboard. "I love my job... if you don't love the job you do, you can always look for something else, that's my motto," she says.

The Whole View and Nothing Butt

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1975 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: Every year, our section of four neighborhood homes is subjected to a disgraceful display of an uncovered rear end of a 68-year-old woman who plants her pansies in this position.

She wears a very short dress and bends from the waist instead of stooping or crouching. I once told her how comfortable slacks are, and she launched into a tirade about how unfeminine they were.

Her garden is in full view of our patio, and we can't entertain or sit out there because this woman ruins the view. Would you please comment? Sign this,

"SEEN IT ALL"

DEAR SEEN: The direct approach is usually the best one. Why not tell your neighbor frankly that if she doesn't like slacks, she should wear a longer dress while gardening.

DEAR ABBY: I am married to a 55-year-old wealthy president of his own company. During our 22 years of marriage, he has felt the need to consult periodically with psychiatrists.

I have never even met any of his shrinkers and many times wasn't even aware that he had been seeing one until after his therapy was completed.

My husband is highly motivated but can't do anything in moderation. This applies to golf, taking medicine, exercising and everything else he gets involved in.

Now he says he has a new shrink who has advised him to forget his wife and two teenage children, and to "do his own thing."

I'd like to know what in the hell this doctor thinks my husband has been doing for the last 22 years without any interference from me.

Your advice would be greatly appreciated.

MARYLAND

DEAR MARYLAND: I seriously doubt that any psychiatrist worth his salt would advise a patient to "forget his wife and family and to do his own thing."

Ask your husband to ask his psychiatrist to set up a series of three-way sessions between husband, wife and doctor to discuss where matters stand. It might even turn out that there is no psychiatrist!

DEAR ABBY: I've been going with Della for nearly a year. We have a lot in common, and I've even considered marrying her, but there is a problem. Whenever we get into an argument (usually about politics), she gets very angry and she bites me! Della has bitten me on the cheek and also on the hand. When she bites, she actually draws blood!

Does she need help?

ONCE BITTEN

DEAR ONCE: Yes! And if you don't get help (medical) after having been bitten by a human, the effects can be serious. (A human bite can be more dangerous than that of an animal.) Della's obvious inability to curb her temper is symptomatic of a deeper emotional problem.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "ON THE SPOT": I know of no way for you to get your tapes and pictures back. But if you suspect that you will eventually be blackmailed, discuss it with a lawyer.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

For Abby's new booklet, "What Teen-agers Want to Know," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (20¢) envelope.

Hutson-Selwitz Vows Are Read

Mr. and Mrs. Steven Paul Selwitz

The sanctuary of the First Christian Church was the scene of the June wedding of Miss Ada Sue Hutson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hutson of Murray, to Steven Paul Selwitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Selwitz of Williamsville, N. Y.

Dr. David C. Roos performed the afternoon double ring ceremony. A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Richard Farrell, organist, and Rev. Ron Gordon, soloist. Selections by Rev. Gordon were "One Hand, One Heart," "More," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Centering the church altar were two brass spiral candelabra intertwined with ivy and sprinkled with multi-colored flowers flanked by two green vases of flowers. The communion table held a mixed bouquet of white roses, carnations in apricot, green, and yellow, lavender and pink asters, blue corn flowers, and painted marguerite daisies.

The windows were decorated with brass candlesticks encircled with ivy and multi-colored flowers. The register table overlaid with an ivory lace cloth was centered with a wicker basket arrangement of multi-colored daisies, carnations, asters, and corn flowers. Mrs. James Dale Clopton presided at the register.

Bride's Dress

The bride was lovely in her summer gown of ivory sateu with a double ruffled scoop neckline edged in Venice lace. The empire bodice was outlined with Venice and satin insertion, and the graceful flowing skirt was adorned with raised Venice rose motifs. A deep biased flounce encircled the hemline and swept to a full chapel train.

Her three tiered fingertip veil of ivory illusion was attached to a close fitting cap of matching Venice lace. She carried a bridal bouquet of gardenias, baby's breath, and stephanotis placed on an ivory lace backing and ivory satin ribbon.

Miss Kathy Rayburn was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Edds, Miss Katherine Converse, and Miss Rebecca Selwitz.

They wore formal gowns of medallion printed French muslin in peppermint green on ivory background featuring tiered Bertha collars enhancing the scoop necklines. Brief sleeves were created with the collar flounces and the simple dirndl skirts were accented with deep bias flounces at the hemlines.

The attendants wore ivory sisal braid straw ante-bellum hats with the crowns draped with matching bias bands of the fabric used in the gowns. They carried nosegays of multi-colored French apricot and green carnations, yellow marguerite daisies, blue corn flowers, white roses, and baby's breath.

Michael E. Cathey served as best man. Groomsmen were Michael L. Cross, Edward Selwitz, and Dan C. Hutson. Dr. Russell Williamson and Joe Bill Fridy were ushers. The men's boutonnieres were green carnations backed with leatherleaf tips.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother chose to wear a pearl grey crepe dress with white lace jacket. Mrs. Selwitz, mother of the groom, wore a peach colored crepe knit sleeveless a-line dress with matching jacket. Their corsages were of white cattleya orchids.

Mrs. N. P. Hutson and Mrs. W. J. Gibson, Murray, grandmothers of the bride, and Mrs. Wilson Inman, Hardin, grandmother of the groom, also had white cattleya orchid corsages.

Reception

Following the ceremony the reception was held at the Murray Woman's Club House. The serving table was overlaid with ivory lace cloths with yellow undercloth and adorned with emerald green bows and streamers. Centering the table was a large centerpiece of multi-colored flowers in a silver bowl with strings of smilax draped from it to two silver candelabra sprinkled with more of the multi-colored flowers.

Garlanded around the punch bowl and cake were the same flowers. The cake was decorated with live japhet orchids and topped with a "kissing couple" arched with small live flowers. The champagne table was covered with an ivory lace cloth over yellow and string smilax was placed around the serving bowl.

The register table was centered with a white rose with baby's breath. Live ferns, sheffalera, and margenata trees were used throughout the main ball room. The fireplace held a palmleaf basket arrangement of magnolia leaves and blooms. A basket of gypsophelia was used on the mantel which was draped with smilax and ivy.

Those serving at the reception were Mesdames Robert Ray Buckingham, Gene Hendon, H. Glenn Doran, Beck Wilson, Max Carman, Buist Scott, Jr., Buist Scott III, Pete Hulsey, Jim Converse, David Palmer, Jim Hart, and James Dale Clopton. They, along with the organist, had multi-colored corsages of marguerite daisies with rainbow ribbons.

The couple left for a wedding trip and are now residing in Charleston, S. C., where the groom is serving as a lieutenant with the U. S. Navy. He was a May graduate of the University of Kentucky College of Denistry. The new Mrs. Selwitz received her M. A. from the University of Kentucky and taught at Berea College last year.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Gary Dukes, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bragdon, Mr. and Mrs. William Thorpe, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Hurley and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Mifflin, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Inman, Garnetta and Melinda Noles, Cathy Creason, Ruby, Spencer, and Joel Cathey, Benton; Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Watch your budget now. Don't go beyond limits until a pending financial matter is definitely settled. It could go differently than you expect.

A better day for your interests than you may realize. Waste no time getting started, but don't drive through, indifferent to the reactions of others.

PISCES

(Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)

Don't jump to hasty conclusions. Even where long-postponed changes are due, do not make them impulsively. Best efforts could be rendered futile by anxiety, premature action.

Parrish And Nance Vows Solemnized At Church

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Nance

Miss Theresea Jane Parrish, and Jerry Nance were married on Sunday, July 7, at the West Fork Baptist Church and with Bro. Guy Harper officiating at the double ring candle light ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parrish, Dexter, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Osro Butterworth and Mr. and Mrs. Rice Futrell, all of Murray, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parrish, Dexter. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nance of Bell City.

Decorations for the ceremony included two white candelabra holding white candles and greenery flanked by gold and white pedestals with baskets of white, yellow, and green tipped daisies and baby's breath. Centering the altar was an arch of greenery with gold leaves and two white doves tied with ribbons in love knots hanging from the middle with a white and yellow bow. The family pews were marked with green and yellow satin bows.

The guest register in the church entrance was kept by Miss Nancy Copeland.

Mrs. Susan Lee, pianist, presented a program of nuptial music including the following selections: "Colour My World," "The Way We Were," "Love Is A Many Splendored Thing," "Close To You," and "The Wedding March."

Bride's Dress
The bride, given in marriage by her parents, wore an ivory polyester and cotton gown featuring a round neckline and long sleeves with candlelight lace edging both the neckline and the sleeves. The empire waist was accented by a tie back and double edged lace around the bodice and down the front of the dress with tiny lime green ribbon woven in the middle of the lace and tinybows at the bottom of the lace. The flowing train was accented with a nine inch ruffle around the bottom of the gown.

Her two tiered fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a daisy-look headpiece, trimmed in three inch lace. The dress and veil were made by the bride. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow, white, and green tipped daisies with illusion, baby's breath, and yellow and lime green ribbon tied in love knots.

Her jewelry was a silver heart diamond necklace, gift of the groom. Her borrowed piece, a silver pinky ring, was from her matron of honor, Mrs. Susan Cunningham. Miss Bonnie Parrish, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid.

Mrs. Cunningham and Miss Parrish wore green and ivory voile dresses designed with v-neck, tie-back, angel wing sleeves, and ruffles at the hemlines. The dresses were accented with candle light lace and they wore ivory hats with green ribbon and daisies in the back. Each one carried a single yellow long stemmed mum accented with green and ivory ribbon and baby's breath.

Larry Cunningham served as best man for the groom, and Jim Brasher was groomsmen, who also served as ushers. The men wore dark forest green tuxedos with velvet lapels and white shirts trimmed in green. Their boutonnières were white carnations.

Reception
Following the ceremony the reception was held in the fellowship hall of the Goshen United Methodist Church.

The bride's table was covered with a lime green cloth under an ivory lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow daisies and baby's breath in a gold vase flanked by yellow candles in matching holders. The three tiered wedding cake was decorated with yellow roses and green petals, was topped with three attached wedding bells, and had four love doves on the bottom tier. Matching sheet cake and punch was served for the guests.

Mrs. Danna Parrish and Mrs. Elizabeth Smith served the guests after the bride and groom had their toast to each other. Shane Nance distributed rice bags.

Following a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Nance are now at home at 69 Riviera Courts, Murray.

Rehearsal Breakfast
A breakfast was held on Saturday morning, July 5, at Perkins Pancake House prior to the rehearsal at the church.

Attending the event were members of the wedding party.

NEWS OF BEAUTY

BEAUTY WEAK SPOTS
Beauty experts advise a balanced diet, exercise, and plenty of rest as essential to a beautiful complexion. But, in some cases, even when these rules are apparently followed, certain people are not able to maintain the good nutritional status needed for a smooth and healthy skin. Scientists at Hoffmann-La Roche Inc., a vitamin producer, have reviewed literature references which cite skin conditions as a reflection of vitamin deficiencies. These references indicate that such vitamin deficiencies can produce rough, reddened and dry areas. This suggests supplementing your dietary nutrients and vitamins. One vitamin that is becoming increasingly popular in cosmetic and beauty products is Vitamin B5, pantothenic acid. A form of this vitamin, called panthenol, is used in skin creams, shampoos, sun-tan lotions and lipsticks and hair care products.

Fertilizers In Demand
It's estimated that four times the amount of fertilizer now being used would be required to double food production in the world's developed countries.

Rogers' Home Scene Of Coffee Given In Honor Of Bride-elect

Another delightful courtesy extended to Miss Karen Russell, August second bride-elect of Terry Hannah, was the coffee held at the home of Mrs. James Rogers, 207 North Sixteenth Street, on Saturday, July 19.

The hostesses were Mesdames Rogers, Woodrow Herndon, William C. Adams, Sr., Jimmy Rickman, Bobby Henry, and Steve Herndon.

The bride-elect chose to wear from her trousseau a slack ensemble of blue pants and floral top. She was presented a corsage of gardenias from the garden of Woodrow Herndon by the hostesses as was her mother, Mrs. Eugene Russell, and her grandmother, Mrs. Frank Butler.

The beautifully appointed serving table was overlaid with a white linen cloth edged in lace and centered with an arrangement of roses in a silver urn. Silver and crystal appointments were used to serve the juice, coffee, pastries, etc.

Miss Russell was presented a place setting of her chosen pattern of pottery as a wedding gift from the hostesses.

Thirty-five guests called during the morning hours of ten to twelve o'clock.

Laxatives

An advisory panel appointed by the Food and Drug Administration to review over-the-counter laxatives reported that the 70 laxative ingredients used, 60 percent were found effective, 19 percent needed further study, and 21 percent were ineffective or unsafe.

"There is widespread misuse of self-prescribed laxatives," the panel reported. "No laxative should be used longer than one week, except under the advice and supervision of a physician."

Two commonly used ingredients were especially cited. Castor oil should be taken infrequently and only as a single dose, the advisory group said. Mineral oil prevents absorption of the fat-soluble vitamins.

With Americans spending $300 million a year for laxatives, it would seem to be wise to take seriously the findings of Dr. Dennis Burkitt in regard to the importance of bulk in the diet. The use of refined, low-residue foods—white bread, pastries, meat, refined cereals—is a major factor in constipation. A switch to whole-grain bread and cereals is often all that is required to produce normal bowel action.

The habit of drinking two or three glasses of lukewarm water on rising is often helpful in establishing regularity of elimination.

Dr. Charles Bauer, writing in Family Health (January, 1975), makes helpful suggestions for the young child who is constipated. He warns parents that they may make the problem worse by communicating undue anxiety about the problem to the child. A more constructive approach than nagging is to change the diet to include more fruit and vegetables and plenty of water. Sufficient outdoor exercise promotes general good health and strengthens the abdominal muscles.

Dr. Bauer's cardinal rule—and this applies to adults as well as to children—is to establish regular bowel habits by scheduling a visit to the bathroom at the same time each day.

With the establishment of these good health habits there should seldom if ever be any need to use laxatives.

Cole's Camp Ground Women Meet At Home, Mrs. Wrather

The monthly meeting of Cole's Camp Ground United Methodist Women was held on Tuesday, July 15 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Raymond Wrather.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Homer Fred Williams. Mrs. Keith Lettermann led the opening prayer. A reading and discussion of the books of Titus and Philemon composed the program.

Matters of business included the planning for a supper on Sunday evening, August 10, as a prelude for the church's revival which will be held from August 10 through 15 at 7:30 p.m. each evening. Discussions were held as to getting various groups to sing, and a committee was appointed to work towards this goal. Katie Lettermann and Delois Scott were appointed as co-chairmen on this committee.

The meeting was closed with a prayer by Mrs. Virginia Crouse. Following the meeting, Beurdane Wrather served the group delicious refreshments. Those attending the meeting were Frances Williams, Delois Scott, Virginia Crouse, Beurdean Wrather, Katie Lettermann, Mildred Crouse, and Rebecca Williams.

The next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, August 19.

Ladies Day Golf Is Wednesday

The women of the Murray Country Club will have their regular ladies day golf on Wednesday, August 6, at the club.

Frances Hulse, hostess, said pairings will be made at the tee at nine a. m.

Cook's tip

Place a couple spoonfuls each of coarsely chopped celery and onion under chicken or fish pieces. This prevents skin from sticking to surface used for cooking—oven bag film or a metal pan. Celery and onion also add flavor. Determine doneness of chicken and other meats being cooked in oven bags by inserting a fork right through the bag.

Sidewalk Sale

Consumers and merchants alike benefitted from the annual, city-wide sidewalk sale held in Murray over the past weekend.

Shoppers were able to browse among the many bargains offered by the merchants, who in turn were able to clear their shelves of seasonal merchandise in preparation for this fall and winter.

It is gratifying from our vantage point to see businesses from all parts of the city—the downtown, the shopping centers, and outlying areas—participate in a sale of this magnitude.

Abiding By Rules

In rejecting a proposal that public school students be allowed to smoke in certain outdoor areas on the premises, the Board of Education has given the smokers enough alternatives that should avert nervous breakdowns.

Schools are in session only 180 days a year. And students are in school only about six hours each day. That means they can smoke to their hearts' content the other 185 days of the year, en route to school, en route from school, before and after breakfast, before

The sidewalk sale is the largest sale of its kind throughout the year in Murray and we are certain that most towns of comparable size do not receive the cooperation of the merchants that is evident here.

We salute the merchants, the local banks who helped promote the sale and especially the Murray Chamber of Commerce and executive secretary, James Johnson, for their work in presenting the citizens of Murray with another tremendous "Sidewalk Sale."

and after dinner and until bedtime (assuming of course parents permit it).

The other alternative is that students who can't wait may take a few puffs in the rest rooms and face the possibility of suspension.

Disciplining of young people is, or should be, a part of the education process. And if the student can't take a little discipline now, his willingness to abide by rules may be difficult in adult life.

Medical Care Costs Rising Across Nation

WASHINGTON (AP) — The cost of medical care in America is rising more rapidly than the cost of living, partly because Blue Cross and Blue Shield hesitate to impose cost controls on doctors and hospitals.

A three-month investigation by The Associated Press indicates that Americans might save millions, and perhaps billions, of dollars annually if Blue Cross and Blue Shield changed some of its policies.

Instead, the rates of the two nonprofit, public service health insurance organizations are climbing steeply across the country.

In Florida, Blue Cross asked the state insurance commission for a 26 per cent rate hike. Florida Blue Shield wants 14 per cent. Increases in Colorado range from 10 per cent to 40 per cent.

Rates vary widely among the 144 Blue Cross and Blue Shield plans. Coverage for one family now often costs between $50 and $65 monthly.

The price of a semiprivate hospital room has risen 197 per cent — to $100 a day or more in many hospitals — in the past 10 years, according to government statistics, while doctors' fees have gone up 85 per cent. The cost of living, meanwhile, has risen 68 per cent.

The AP investigation indicates that Blue Cross and Blue Shield — now involved in the payment of 30 per cent of the nation's $100-billion annual medical bill — might put brakes on this inflation.

All the Blue Cross and Blue Shield plans, for example, agree to pay the hospital and doctor costs of elective surgery without requiring a second opinion on the need for that surgery. One New York City union instituted a second opinion requirement in its health insurance plan. That was in 1972 and elective surgery has been reduced by 17.5 per cent among the 11,000 union members since then, at a saving of $7 a member. A doctor who testified at a congressional hearing projected this saving nationwide and came up with a saving of $5 billion.

Blue Shield, which pays doctor bills, gives doctors a major say in determining the amounts Blue Shield will pay them for treating subscribers. But the formula used encourages doctors to raise their bills, because the bills they submit help determine the reimbursements they'll get. Only five of the 71 Blue Shield organizations have put limits on this system.

Blue Cross, which provides hospital insurance, is helping finance over 60,000 surplus beds in American hospitals. Only three of the 73 Blue Cross plans require hospitals to verify the medical necessity of a hospital admission at the time it occurs, and police length of stay. Only a third of the plans negotiate in advance the hospital rates they'll reimburse. The rest either pay what a hospital charges, or audit a hospital's bills after they're received. Each of these problems can add to medical care costs, the AP investigation found.

Eighty-two million people have Blue Cross coverage and 72 million Blue Shield. But they have little say in running the 144 different and largely independent plans or in determining rate increases. Each plan has a board and many of these boards are dominated by doctors and hospital officials, or by laymen chosen by medical societies and hospital officials, the AP investigation found.

Since Blue Cross and Blue Shield pay for services provided by hospitals and doctors, each time there's a rate increase the question arises whether these directors have done all they can to compel doctors and hospitals to hold down costs.

In the states where Blue Cross and Blue Shield must secure government approval, rate increases in the past often have been routinely granted. But a few states are questioning Blue Cross and Blue Shield policies, among them New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Vermont and Michigan.

By ANTHONY HARRIGAN

Executive Vice President

United States Industrial Council

HARRIGAN

TODAY'S TOPIC: THE NEW DESPOTISM

The use of massive governmental power to compel equality of condition is one of the most disturbing aspects of our era. Unless Americans awake to the threat inherent in income redistribution schemes, freedom in the United States may be destroyed.

A timely warning of this threat was voiced recently by Dr. Robert A. Nisbet, Albert Schweitzer Professor of the Humanities at Columbia University.

Addressing a convocation at Rockford College in Illinois, Dr. Nisbet pointed out that there is an effort under way in the United States to undertake a massive and revolutionary redistribution not only of income and property, but also of position and learning.

For example, the federal government clearly attempts direct income redistribution with tax laws. So-called Affirmative Action programs require colleges and universities to hire people on the basis of race, creed, color and language group, rather than qualifications. A further example is the food stamp program which creates a privileged class of recipients who obtain groceries at the expense of self-reliant citizens.

This is a conscious process. Dr. Nisbet quoted Prof. Christopher Jencks of Harvard who wrote: "We need to establish the idea that the federal government is responsible not only for the total amount of national income but for its distribution." Dr. Jencks added that in order to achieve the measure of equality he desires "we will have to establish political control over the economic institutions that shape our society." This is what other societies call socialism.

Prof. Nisbet warns that this new equality can only be achieved by making Big Government bigger. He told his audience at Rockford: "The effort to legislate, to mandate a moral value upon a large and variegated population is an effort that has to proceed, as history makes clear, through ever greater infusions and extensions of power."

In other words, the new equality can only be achieved by curbing or eliminating liberty. As Dr. Nisbet pointed out, "Bureaucracy by its nature prizes uniformity."

For Big Government to insist on equality, beyond equality before the law, which all Americans approve, must involve an assault on vital, differentiating liberty.

Total equality is impossible in a truly free society, for people are unequal in their abilities and energy. If government takes everything from the able and energetic and transfers it to the unqualified and the indolent, liberty is destroyed. Moreover, a great injustice has been committed.

Thus the theorists of income redistribution, favor an unjust society, a society in which men and women do not get their due. Indeed, for this reason, a socialist society is an inherently unjust society in which freedom cannot exist.

Dr. Nisbet makes a strong case for liberty vs. the new equality of redistribution. The average American, the man in the street, can readily understand his message and the morality behind it. When property owners get their tax bills, they understand that they are the victims of tax thievery. The new equality, which is the rationale for federal handout programs, is, in fact, the new despotism.

HEARTLINE

HEARTLINE is a service for Senior Citizens. Its purpose is to answer questions and solve problems—fast. Write to HEARTLINE, 8514 North Main St., Dayton, Ohio, 45415.

Heartline: Can you tell me what R. S. V. P. is? I am a retired person who would like to be more active. H. B.

Answer: R. S. V. P. stands for Retired Senior Volunteer Program, and is a volunteer program for older persons who are interested in contributing their time, skills, and concern for others to aid their community.

Since experience is the best teacher, it follows that people of retirement age have much to offer in knowledge, skills, patience, and unending dedication. If you are retired and at least 60 years of age, and are willing to give a small portion of your time on a regular basis, and in search of an opportunity to be useful, needed, and appreciated, write to ACTION, Washington, D. C., 20525. There are no restrictions based on education, income, or experience.

Heartline: I recently paid $700.00 for a hearing aid and have just discovered today that I had a build-up of wax in my ears, and can now hear almost as well without it, since the doctor removed the wax. The hearing aid company will not refund my money because they say that I have admitted that it helps some. It does not help $700.00 worth. R. C.

Answer: The company will soon send you a full refund, minus the cost of the ear mold, which can never be used by anyone else. We were fortunate in your case to be able to get your refund. In many cases, we are not fortunate.

Heartline suggests that anyone who suffers from a loss of hearing should see their family doctor first. The loss of hearing is a medical problem. It can be a symptom of a more serious disease or something that can be corrected by surgery or just cleaning your ears properly. Your doctor may refer you to an ear specialist. As a rule of thumb, be sure. Go to a doctor first. Do not go to a hearing aid dealer first. If there is a serious or complicated medical problem, your hearing aid dealer may not be able to detect it.

Heartline: Where can I get some information about what can be done to help my son in the way of benefits? He is 21 and disabled. I have just retired and it is difficult to support him on my low income. D. S. R.

Answer: Your Social Security office will furnish you with a publication titled "Social Security Benefits for People Disabled Before Age 22", publication number (SSA) 73-10012.

Let's Stay Well

Blood Pressure In Pregnancy

By F. J. L. Blasingame, M.D.

BLASINGAME

High blood pressure during pregnancy requires special attention. The combination can be dangerous.

It is important to know whether the pregnant woman has hypertension and if it existed prior to pregnancy or developed during it. This information can have an important bearing on the management of her disease.

Monitoring the blood pressure is one of the most significant reasons for having periodic examinations during pregnancy. The blood pressure remains unchanged or slightly lower in the pregnant state.

Women with kidney disease may have it worsened during pregnancy and have an associated elevation of blood pressure. The urine may show casts and albumin as a result of the added stress. The physician checks the urine at frequent intervals during pregnancy to watch out for early evidence of kidney trouble.

If a woman is taking any of several medications for high blood pressure prior to pregnancy, the physician may ask her to stop the medication because of possible ill-effects on the fetus, especially in early weeks of pregnancy. However, he may consider that her blood pressure elevation is such that she must continue medication in spite of the risk.

Toxemia of pregnancy, or eclampsia, usually with the first pregnancy in its last trimester, is a dangerous complication with an associated high blood pressure, and may lead to kidney failure and convulsions — even death of fetus and mother. Skilled management is essential.

If a pregnancy is planned, it is desirable that the prospective mother have a prior examination, which should include checking her blood pressure and her kidneys.

Q: Mrs. R.R. asks for comment on the usual causes of impotence in men.

A: Impotence may be brought on by any of several causes of a combination of them. An infection such as flu may cause a low or absent drive. Impotence may result from chronic failing health, and other signs of disease should be looked for. More frequently, stress associated with overwork or loss of sleep may impair sexual activity. Depression is a common cause of impotence. If it persists, seek the help of a physician.

Q: Mr. T.H. asks whether medical evidence shows that tobacco smoking by a pregnant mother can damage her fetus.

A: Many medical authorities have cautioned mothers about smoking during pregnancy. The developing fetus is highly sensitive to many chemicals. An increase in stillbirths and lighter weight babies among mothers who smoke tobacco has been documented by many reliable studies.

Louisiana Superdome Opens With Free Show

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — locked away from public view: the plush private suites, convention meeting rooms, office spaces. Much of it — an estimated $1 million worth — was still unfinished: escalators and elevators didn't work, ceiling tiles hadn't been installed, and water fountains were dry. The crowd didn't seem to mind.

Cars backed up a half mile waiting to get into the parking garages as others tried to get out, but there were no angry shouts and little horn tooting. The Dome was four years in planning and an equal number of years in construction. It has been the subject of political controversy and two dozen lawsuits, and its financial dealings have been investigated by federal, state and local authorities. Its cost ballooned from the initial bid price of $93 million to the current $163 million.

The entire Louisiana territory was purchased for $15 million in 1803, but nobody in the Mardi Gras atmosphere inside the Dome cared to make the comparison.

The musicians appeared ant-sized from the top seats, but six 22-by-26-foot television screens magnified them in close-up color.

Haute couture rubbed elbows with tank tops and cutoffs, youth with the elderly, roaming the miles of ramps, lining up at the portable beer stands under the 13-acre roof.

"It's a typical Mardi Gras crowd," said John Pechon Jr., director of security for the Dome. He estimated that 80,000 people were inside the arena at the peak of the day's action.

Much of the big stadium was

Claim Four In Kentucky

Four persons were killed in traffic accidents Sunday, bringing the state's weekend highway death toll to six, state police said.

An elderly Morgan County man, Raney Pieratt, 83, of Dehart, died Sunday evening in a two-car accident on KY 519, near a junction with KY 7, police said.

A head-on collision Sunday afternoon on U.S. 129 just outside Frankfort killed a Franklin County woman and her son, Jane Mitchell, 23, and her 3-year-old son Charles, when their car skidded into an oncoming car on a rain-slick curve, police said. No one else was seriously injured.

A collision between an auto and a camper in downtown Louisville killed a Jefferson County deputy sheriff early Sunday, police said. Chesley Blades, 29, was killed in the crash, on Interstate 65 near Market St. His body was returned to his native Greensburg for burial.

Two persons died in separate accidents Saturday.

Roger Pack, 26, of Firebrick in Lewis County, was fatally injured in a two-car crash on KY 210, near Firebrick.

And Melinda Willyard, 17, of Owensboro, died when the car she was riding in ran off a road near her home.

NFO Operated Meat Plant In Operation Now

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Farmers are guaranteed prices higher than the going market for their cattle at meat-packing plant here operated solely for the National Farmers Organization (NFO), according to the plant supervisor.

All of the 40,000 pounds of ground beef produced at the operation each week goes to NFO "sidewalk sales," said Don Henderson, who also operates a 130-acre farm in Winchester, Ohio.

The farmers are paid based on the success of those sales, but get at least three cents a pound dressed weight more than the going market price, and sometimes eight cents per pound more, he said.

Henderson said the NFO makes no profit, but charges 27 cents per live hundredweight for processing and marketing costs. He added that the owner of the plant, Gus Juengling of Cincinnati, and the packaging firm in Covington also get a fee for each animal process or pound of meat sold, but he wouldn't say how much.

ENDS ARMY CAREER—Sergeant Major James E. Poole, son of Albert E. Poole of Murray, and Mrs. Marell Faug of Groten, Conn., retired from the Army Thursday, July 31, at Ft. Rucker, Ala. He wears the Meritorious service Medal he received for outstanding work in his last position, chief instructor of Rucker's Maintenance Training Division, Department of Academic Training. He entered the service from Murray in 1953.

About 70 Per Cent Of Brazil's Coffee Crop Destroyed By Frost

LONDRINA, Brazil (AP) — Brazilian coffee experts now say that about 70 per cent of the country's coffee crop has been destroyed by a killer frost in southern Brazil.

The intense frost defoliated millions of coffee trees and from an airplane the devastated hills of Parana state and thousands of acres of fertile coffee land in three other states between Rio de Janeiro and this southern city resembled the scorched trail of a marauding army.

Most Londrina coffee producers, collectors and administrators agreed that this was the "worst frost this century."

"The frost was terrible, it couldn't be better," said Marcos Schaulff, owner of a major plantation near Londrina. "Not one of these trees will produce another coffee bean for two years. But in June before the frost, I collected a record 40,000 bags of coffee," he added.

The predicament of the well-stocked producer surrounded by 120,000 withered coffee trees reflects Brazil's position on the international market.

Most experts speculate that Brazil will use its coffee reserves to retain its traditional 37 per cent share of world coffee exports next year. Brazilian coffee, which will earn the nation an estimated $1.2 billion to $1.5 billion in 1975, currently fills about one-third of the world's coffee pots.

Selling Brazilian Coffee Institute stockpiles would, however, leave the cupboards bare for 1977, when many plants would still not have recovered from the frost, experts said.

Regional directors of the institute have estimated that 70 per cent of Brazil's 1976 coffee harvest is gone, but estimates from independent agencies, like the U.S. Commerce Department, have not yet been released.

At any rate, the catastrophe is certain to boost coffee prices around the world. Consumer prices in Brazil soared 60 per cent this week following 100 per cent increases of coffee quotations on New York and London exchanges.

State Tourney Play At Mayfield

Little Leaguers Fall 8-6 To St. Matthews

By MIKE BRANDON
Ledger & Times Sports Editor
Defeat doesn't always mean failure.

The Murray Little League All-Stars were defeated Saturday at Mayfield in the semifinals of the State Tournament. But they didn't fail.

They didn't fail to hustle, to give everything they had, to show sportsmanship and to accept defeat and still show pride.

For the second consecutive year, it was an extra inning ballgame. Last year at Ashland, Murray fell 4-2 in 11 innings to London. Saturday, it didn't take as long but the sting was just as bad.

A fine Louisville St. Matthews team came up with the big plays when they needed them and managed to grab an 8-6 win over Murray in eight innings.

There were a bundle of opportunities in the contest for Murray to win the game. And that's the worst part of a defeat, looking back at all of the missed chances. But on the other hand, Louisville had a bundle of chances to ice the game in the victory column but couldn't as the gutsy Murray team refused to accept their fate.

Trailing 5-1 going into the bottom of the sixth, Murray came to bat, and it looked about like the game was all over. The crowd was quiet but the Murray dugout was alive with confident talk.

Joel Klein led off the inning with a solid basehit and pinch-hitter Eddie Requarth followed with a wicked triple, making it 5-2. Robin Roberts drew a walk and then Robert Santagado belted a two-run triple and Murray trailed 5-4 with nobody out.

Louisville then went to the bullpen but the first man up against the new pitcher brought in the tying run. Keith Overby socked a hard drive into right but the ball was caught.

Santagado tagged up and trotted in and the game was knotted at five apiece. The next two batters went down on strikes.

Kim Wilson, on the mound in relief for Murray, loaded the bases as Louisville got two walks and an error to fill the sacks. Manager Hamp Erwin went to the relief corps again and sent in Ken Kendall, who was playing shortstop.

Kendall got the first man to pop out but the next batter hit a scratch single and Louisville went ahead 6-5. Kendall retired the next two men.

Faced with defeat or either having to score a run to keep the game alive, Murray did the latter.

Mark Smith opened the frame by reaching on an error. After Kendall fanned, Klein singled and runners were on first and third. Eddie Requarth slammed a drive back to the pitcher that was too hot to handle and Smith scored the tying run.

That left Klein on third with the winning run with just one out. Robin Roberts struck out and then Santagado ripped a shot at second. But the second baseman managed to get his glove on the ball and threw out Santagado. Otherwise, Murray would have won the game.

In the top of the eighth, Kendall walked the first two batters. The next man singled for an RBI and the next batter drove in a run with an RBI fielder's choice as the play went to the plate but the umpire ruled catcher Mark Smith was late with the tag.

Kendall retired the next two batters and Murray went into the bottom of the eighth trailing 8-6.

The first two men went down in order and it looked like the game was over as Wilson hit a slow roller toward second but the second baseman misplayed it and Wilson was safe on the error.

Smith followed with a single and Kendall singled and Murray has the bases loaded. Klein then laced a hard shot into right and the ball came close to falling. Unfortunately, it didn't and that was the game.

Donnie Thompson started on the mound for Murray and was removed in the first after getting off to a shaky start.

Scott Hill pitched five innings of fine relief but was hurt by a couple of errors. Wilson also pitched and Kendall, who got the loss, finished up.

The only other Murray run in the game came in the first inning as Klein walked and Roberts rifled a long triple into deep center.

The park at Mayfield was much larger than a regulation Little League field. And had it been the park at Henderson or Paducah, where Murray had won earlier games to advance to the State Tournament, Murray would have easily won Saturday.

"We had six long ones hit that would have been out of the park at Murray, Paducah or Henderson," Manager Hamp Erwin said. Louisville had only two well-hit drives in the contest.

"We gave all we had. We have a fine group of young men and they will really make a great contribution to the Pony League next year," Erwin added.

Owensboro Southern and Louisville were to meet Sunday for the title but the game was rained out. They will try again today. The winner advances to Florida.

Hole-In-One Provides Spark That Carries Littler To Win

By BOB GREEN
AP Golf Writer

HARRISON, N.Y. (AP) — It was a typical Gene Littler understatement, softly drawled, low-key, played-down.

"It was," mused Gene after due consideration, "a pretty fair shot."

The "pretty fair shot" in question was a hole in one.

It got him back in the golf tournament, set up a surging finish in brutal, 100-degree heat, allowed him to tie weary, wilting Julius Boros and go on to a playoff victory in the rich Westchester Classic.

"I didn't have any thought of winning the golf tournament until I got the hole in one," he said. "I really didn't figure I had any chance at all."

But, propelled by his fifth competitive ace, Littler played his last five holes in four under par. It finished off a six-under-par 66 that gave him a 271 total for 72 holes over the hot, hilly, humid, haze-covered Westchester Country Club course.

Boros, the overweight 55-year-old delight of millions of middle-aged hackers throughout the world, was obviously suffering in the hottest weather the tour has seen this year. He came from five strokes off the pace with a final 65, once had the lead alone, had a chance to clinch it with a six-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole — and missed it.

"I wanted to make that putt and close everybody else out," Boros said.

"I'd like to have won, but it's not life and death. Most people retire to play golf and fish. I do it for a living."

A victory would have made him the oldest winner the tour has ever produced.

The missed putt left him one in front. Littler had yet to play the 18th, a par-five. He was short and right in two, pitched on to about five feet and made the birdie putt.

It sent them to the 15th to start a sudden death playoff. Both missed the fairway. Both missed the green. Littler was short. Boros' approach went through the green and up an embankment.

"He didn't have much of a shot," Gene said.

Littler chipped close. Boros ran his down the hill to the fringe, then three-putted for double bogey. Littler tapped in for par. Boros wiped the streaming sweat from his swarthy face, grinned a little, shook Littler's hand and ambled off.

Tom Weiskopf, who led by seven shots at the end of two rounds and by two at the end of three, went to a 71 and finished third at 272, one shot out of the playoff. A three-putt bogey on the 15th all but killed his chances.

Reds Stretch Lead To 15½ Over Los Angeles

By FRED ROTHENBERG
Ap Sports Writer

The Cincinnati Reds, the team that has everything, leads the league in doctor bills, according to head cheerleader Sparky Anderson. So scratch one alibi for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The Dodgers, expected to repeat as National League West champions or at least battle for the division honors, now find themselves in a dogfight for second place with San Francisco as the Reds frolic. 15½ games in front after Sunday's 3-1 victory over the Dodgers.

"This team has everything," said Dave Concepcion, who clubbed a seventh-inning homer that helped cushion the Reds' triumph, their second in a three-game series against the Dodgers. "The 1970 club had more power, but this club has more balance."

And Anderson, the Cincinnati manager, who said that anyone else's injuries detract from the rousing Reds record.

"All I hear about are injuries," Anderson said, referring to the Dodgers' rash of medical ailments. "But I guarantee you we're either even (with) or far ahead of any club with the number of injuries we've had."

Elsewhere in the NL, Philadelphia dumped Montreal 5-4; Atlanta beat San Diego 4-1; St. Louis beat Chicago 7-4 after dropping the first game 6-3; Pittsburgh took a pair from the New York Mets, winning 5-4 in 15 innings and 4-3, and San Francisco beat Houston 5-4 before losing 10-9.

Concepcion's homer, his first since May 21, and Joe Morgan's run-scoring double backed the combined seven-hit pitching of Pat Darcy and Rawley Eastwick.

Phil's 5, Expos 4

Danny Ozark changed his mind, which had much to do with changing the outcome of the game. Tug McGraw wasn't supposed to pitch but he became the winning pitcher with two innings of hitless relief.

Tommy Hutton's pinch single in the 10th inning gave McGraw and the Phillies the victory.

Braves 5, Padres 1

Atlanta inched closer to fourth-place San Diego after Carl Morton pitched a six-hitter and Darrell Evans hit a tie-breaking single. The Braves are now 2½ games behind the Padres.

Cubs 6-4, Cards 3-7

Willie Davis drove in four runs with a home run and a double and Reggie Smith added a solo homer to lead St. Louis to its second-game victory. Two-run singles by Gene Hise and pitcher Tom Dettore highlighted a six-run eighth inning that vaulted the Cubs over the Cardinals in the first game.

Giants 5-9, Astros 4-10

Milt May knocked in five runs and Jose Cruz' two-run double cracked a 6-4 tie in the sixth inning as Houston salvaged a doubleheader split with San Francisco. Gary Matthews drove in three runs with a two-run double and a single to lead the Giants to the victory in the opener.

Pirates 5-4, Mets 4-3

The third-place Mets started the day six games back after taking the first three games of this series but dropped to eight games off the pace with their doubleheader loss to the Pirates, leaders in the NL East. Richie Hebner drove in four runs with a double and a homer in the nightcap after former Met Duffy Dyer's 15th-inning homer won the opener.

Mel Purcell Pulls Off Big Upset In Nationals

The Purcells were really at it Sunday.

While Bennie Purcell and son Del were battling together on the tennis courts Kalamazoo, Mich., at the United States Tennis Association's National Championship for Boy's in the 16-year-old age division.

Purcell pulled off the biggest upset in the tournament as he stunned sixth-seeded Cary Stansbury of Tiburon, Calif.

Purcell, who will be a junior at Murray High this year, dropped the first set 5-7 but won the next two 7-6 and 6-4 to capture the win.

"I came here to win," said the unranked Purcell, who today will face Ted Staren of Hinsdale, Ill., in the third round of play. Top-seeded John McEnroe of Douglaston, New York, easily won his second round match.

Lucky Strikes Advance In State Softball Play

By CAROL JOHNSON

Murray's team never lost its lead after the second inning, when it went ahead 6-3. The Lucky Strikes built up the score in the fourth inning, making it 8-3, and again in the sixth, for an 11-3 lead, before Wickliffe burst loose with six runs in the last inning.

McDonald was the leading hitter for the Lucky Strikes with four hits. Smith and Overby each had three.

Play resumes in the tournament this afternoon at 4 p. m., on the same field adjacent to Roy Stadium, with a game between Ramco Aluminum Company of Sedalia and Wingo. The winner of that game would then tangle with the Lucky Strikes.

ALL TIED UP — It's all tied up. Not, Keith Overby's swing or anything like that. Instead, it was his swing that tied up the game in the bottom of the sixth as Murray's Little League All-Stars scored four times in the inning to keep the State Tournament contest alive.

Bennie Purcell Captures Father-Son Net Matchup

By MIKE BRANDON
Ledger & Times Sports Editor
You just can't beat old "Pops" for playing it cool.
Old "Pops" is Bennie Purcell and play it cool is just what he did Sunday in the second annual Murray City Tennis Open sponsored by the City Park and Recreation Department and the Murray Ledger & Times.

Twice Sunday it was a battle of teacher-student and father-son as Bennie Purcell locked horns on the tennis courts with his son, Del. And twice Sunday, Bennie came out on top, winning the men's singles and teaming with Eddie Hunt to win the doubles.

Del Purcell, who plays for the Murray State tennis team, which is coached by Bennie Purcell, had advanced into the finals by downing Eddie Hunt in the semifinals 6-4 and 6-3.

And then came the fun. It was a heated match witnessed by a large crowd of appreciative tennis fans. And "Pops" and son played like everything was at stake. "But 'Pops' Purcell, using his brilliant lateral speed and his experience, turned back his son 6-4 and 6-4.

In the doubles, it was much the same, only closer. Del Purcell teamed with Ron Underwood while Bennie Purcell teamed with Eddie Hunt. Del and Underwood won the first set on a 5-3 tie-breaker while Bennie and Eddie Hunt won the second set 6-4.

The third set and the match was again decided on a tie-breaker, this time Bennie and Hunt coming out on top 5-2 to take the set 7-6.

One of the brighter notes in the tournament was the play of young Raymond Sims. Sims had been playing tennis for only a year but his steadiness combined with his great concentration has already made him one of the top young tennis players in the area.

Playing in the 16 and under singles, Sims made it all the way to the championship where he finally fell, losing 4-6, 7-6 and 4-6 to Greg Jones of Poplar Bluff, Mo.

However, in a grudge match in the semifinals, Sims scored one of his most gratifying wins of his career as he ousted Arthur Anderson of Hopkinsville 4-6, 6-5 and 7-6. Only two weeks ago, Anderson defeated Sims at the Paducah Sun-Democrat Tournament.

Sims got some added consolation after losing the singles title to Jones. Sims and Kevin Ray combined to win the doubles title. They defeated Jones and Tinker, both of Poplar Bluff, 6-3, 3-6 and 7-6.

There was one other big grudge match in the tournament and again, a Murray player turned out on top.

Jill Austin, playing in the girl's 16 and under singles, collided with Mandy Jackson of Henderson in the finals. They had played twice previously this summer and split.

To add to the matter, there was a little more at stake. Jackson had reached the finals by downing a Murray player in the semis. Jackson entered the finals by defeating Mary Smock 6-1 and 6-2. Austin won two matches in route to the finals and lost only four games in the process.

In the first set, Austin fell to Jackson 4-6. Austin then tied it up by winning the second set 6-4 and then cruised to an easy 6-2 win in the match set.

In the women's open play, upsets highlighted the day.

In the singles, Canary McCord of Nashville stole the show as she upended Patsy Beauchamp in the quarters, Sue Outland in the semifinals and then stunned top-seeded Marty Bastin of Owensboro 6-4, 4-6 and 7-5 in the finals.

However, in the women's doubles, Bastin and Beauchamp got some revenge as they won the championship by defeating McCord and Idea Speight of Nashville 6-2 and 6-1 in the title match.

In other play, the championship of the girl's 12 and under singles went to Candy Jackson of Murray. She defeated Patty McIntosh of Murray 6-1 and 6-3 in the title match. In the boy's 12 and under singles, Paul Austin of Murray took the title as he defeated Ted White of Clarksville 6-0 and 6-1.

Mark and Paul Austin combined in the 12 doubles to defeat Rowtan-Noonan of Paducah 6-3 and 6-1 to win the title there.

In the 14 and under girl's play, Carol Dick of Murray defeated her sister, Catherine, 6-4 and 6-1 for the crown. In the doubles, the Dick Twins combined for a 6-2 and 6-3 win over Robyn Ray and Susan Stripling, both of Murray.

In the boy's 14 and under play, Tom Scott of Paducah took the title by downing David Rudd 6-0 and 6-2. Play in the mixed doubles was not completed but will be finished today.

A field of nearly 300 players were entered in the tournament.

Pony Leaguers Edge Paducah

By MIKE BRANDON
Ledger & Times Sports Editor

Good pitching is money in the bank. And the Murray Pony League All-Stars made another deposit Saturday night in the District Tournament at Paducah.

Paced by the four-hit pitching of Thomas Kendall, Murray clipped Paducah American 3-2 in a battle of undefeateds in the double elimination tournament. Mayfield and Paducah American each have a loss in the tourney.

They were scheduled to play tonight with the winner earning the right to meet Murray, which needs to win just one of two games to advance to the Regional Tournament later this week at Calvert City.

Kendall was in control all the way on the mound, with the exception of just two pitches. Paducah had solo homeruns in the fourth and sixth innings.

Kendall fanned 15 batters and walked only two as he masterly mixed his fine curveball with his blazing speed to keep Paducah off stride the entire game.

David Mathis was the offensive punch for Murray. Mathis banged three hits in his four times at bat and was robbed once of another hit.

"We went up there to play ball," manager Mike Hobbie said.

"We knew we had to win this one so we wanted to go out and get in front early," Hobbie added.

They did just that.

Kendall led off the bottom of the first inning for Murray with a solid single. Mathis then ripped a single and both runners moved up a base on a passed ball.

The first run of the inning scored when Alan Gibbs pounded a single into left to give Murray the early lead. Cleanup hitter Terry Gibson grounded out to third and that drove in Mathis, giving Murray a 2-0 lead.

In the top of the fourth, Paducah trimmed the Murray margin in half with the first solo homer. But in the bottom of the fourth, Murray came back to score another run and go ahead 3-1.

Stripling led off the inning with a single and Danny Rogers was hit by a pitch. John Denham and Thomas Kendall both went down on strikes. After Kendall fanned, the Paducah catcher thought it was the third out and he ripped the ball back behind him to the umpire. The Paducah catcher then trotted toward the dugout and Stripling, on second base, then trotted toward third for the rather unusual stolen base.

Mathis came up and didn't leave any doubt as he plugged the gap for a solid double, sending in Stripling with the tally.

Paducah used their second homer of the contest in the sixth inning to trim the final margin to one run.

There was some excitement though in the top of the seventh. The leadoff hitter for Paducah hit a high "Baltimore chopper" and beat it out for an infield single.

He went to second and third on a passed ball so the tying run was on the hot corner and nobody was out. Kendall then blistered the next three batters on strikes to end the game.

Alan Gibbs had two hits in the contest and along with Mathis, accounted for five of the seven Murray hits. Also hitting safely were Kendall and Stripling.

"Thomas was just unreal pitching," Hobbie said.

"Once again, we didn't really have to play much defense. The real disappointment for us was that we left eight men stranded on the bases. I wasn't at all pleased with our overall team effort at the plate," Hobbie added.

Gibbs will get the starting nod when Murray resumes tourney play, when and if the weather ever permits.

Doyle Keeps Hitting Streak Going, Splittorff Misses Gem

By BRUCE LOWITT
AP Sports Writer

For Denny Doyle, one hit was enough to make him the master of the major leagues. For Paul Splittorff, one hit was enough to keep him from completely mastering the Oakland A's.

Doyle's first-inning, two-run homer gave him hits in 21 consecutive games, the longest streak in the majors this season, and helped propel Boston's red-hot Red Sox to a 6-4 victory over Detroit.

Claude Washington's hit, a first-inning single, was enough to keep Splittorff from pitching a no-hitter. The Kansas City left-hander set down the final 26 batters he faced and the Royals rode John Mayberry's two-run homer and George Brett's three-run double to a 5-0 whitewash of the A's.

In Sunday's other American League action, Milwaukee beat Baltimore 4-1, California downed Texas 6-4 and, in a pair of doubleheaders, Minnesota swept Chicago 7-4 and 12-9 and New York split with Cleveland, winning 12-1 and losing 3-2.

Aurelio Rodriguez' two-run homer in the fourth inning and Ben Oglivie's two-run single in the eighth pulled Detroit into a 4-4 tie. But Cecil Cooper jumped on the first pitch in the bottom of the eighth for a homer, Boston's 100th of the season. The Red Sox, winning their fifth straight game and 23rd in their last 28, added an insurance run when Rick Burleson walked, took second on a grounder and scored on Doyle's single.

Royals 5, A's 0
John Mayberry's two-run homer in the fourth inning and Brett's three-run double in the eighth gave Splittorff all the runs he needed. With the victory, the Royals inched within nine games of the A's in the West.

Brewers 4, Orioles 1
Jim Stanton pitched a three-hitter, losing a no-hit bid on a seventh-inning single by Lee May, and Bobby Mitchell homered to help the Brewers beat Baltimore, who fell 9½ games back of Boston in the East.

Angels 6, Rangers 4
Mickey Rivers' tie-breaking single and Jerry Remy's sacrifice fly in the ninth gave the Angels' victory over Texas. California's Nolan Ryan allowed only two hits and struck out nine batters — including six in a row — during the first five innings, then reinjured a groin muscle and left the game in the sixth.

Twins 7-12, White Sox 4-9
Eric Soderholm's three-run homer highlighted a four-run uprising in the first inning that carried Minnesota to its first-game triumph, then rookie Dan Ford hit a bases-loaded double to climax an eight-run third inning that gave the Twins their

Wins Big

TIJUANA, Mexico (AP) — A Tijuana man who has played the horses for 10 years finally won it big Sunday, taking home $107,530 in the 5-10 handicapping contest at Caliente Race Track.

Dr. Romula Rivera, 48, an anesthesiologist at a Tijuana hospital, was the only better to correctly choose the winners of the sixth through the 10th races — two of which were longshots.

Rivera, who had won four smaller amounts at the track before, said he had no immediate plans how to use his winnings.

WFL Will Have To Consider Davis As Passing Threat Now

ANAHEIM (AP) — World Football League defenses, which had to worry about Anthony Davis as a runner and kick returner, will now have to worry about him as a passer.

"You remember I was three for three at University of Southern California. Well, now I'm one for one here," Davis said after completing a key fourth-quarter pass in the Sun's 21-15 World Football League victory over Portland on Sunday.

Quarterback Mike Ernst threw touchdown passes of 65 and 25 yards for the Sun's first two scores and then ran 39 yards on a quarterback option to help set up the winning score in the league opener for both teams.

But Davis, who gained 102 yards on 23 carries before a crowd of 14,362, once again demonstrated his capacity for the big play.

With the Sun trailing, 15-14, in the fourth quarter, Ernst's 39-yard run put the ball on the Portland 27. Then on a second and eight on the Portland 25, Davis rolled to his left and cut loose with a southpaw pass to tight end Chuck Bradley, who went out of bounds at the nine.

Fullback Greg Herd went over the left side to score the winning touchdown on the next play.

"He was a quarterback in high school and he throws a very tight spiral," said Sun Coach Tom Fears, who put the option play into the Sun repertoire to take further advantage of Davis' talents.

Larry Csonka and Jim Kiick, former Miami Dolphins, made their WFL debuts a success.

Csonka gained 99 yards and Kiick scored three times, including the game-winning touchdown from one yard out with 38 seconds to play.

Jacksonville rallied with a TD in the closing seconds but Alfred Haywood was stopped in an attempt to run for the extra point.

The attendance at Memphis was announced at 25,166.

Former Dallas Cowboy Calvin Hill gained 132 yards on 32 carries for the Hawaiians but Philadelphia, under new coach Willie Wood, won on the strength of two touchdown passes by King Corcoran. Bell quarterback Sonny Sixkiller threw a touchdown pass on the final play of the game but it was nullified by a holding penalty.

A paid crowd of 2,732 turned out in Philadelphia.

Art Cantrelle's one-yard plunge accounted for the game's only touchdown as the Birmingham defense bottled up Chicago. The Winds missed three field goals.

An estimated crowd of 29,000 was on hand in Birmingham.

John Walton threw for two second-period touchdowns, the plays covering 60 and 63 yards, as San Antonio made it two-for-two in regular-season play.

Dover Wins State Title By Edging By Banditos

By Carol Johnson

Because of their sheer perseverance in the face of incredible odds, every team was a winner in the rain-plagued Kentucky Junior American Softball Association Tournament held this past weekend in Murray.

Scheduled to begin on Friday morning, the double elimination tournament drew 15 teams of girls 13-15 years old from across the state, but was delayed until Saturday because of rain.

With field conditions impossible at Murray City Park where games were expected to be played, tournament officials asked for and were granted permission to use the grass fields around Stewart Stadium at Murray State University.

Twenty-one ballgames were played Saturday under overcast and dripping skies, with the host team, the Murray Banditos, beginning play at 7:30 a. m. in the opener, they encountered little trouble in winning 36-7, over the Ohio County All-Stars. The Banditos were led by the power hitting Kim Kemp and Tammy Calhoun. Kim had three homeruns and a single, while Tammy had a homerun, a double and three singles.

Later in the day the Banditos shut out the North Middletown Jewels 11-0. Kim Kemp again batted two homers, and Rose Ross added three hits.

For their third game of the day, the Banditos knocked off Sharpe (Marshall County) 9-2.

The win placed them on a collision course with Dover Hutch's Harem, last year's defending champions, in the winner's bracket with a forfeit by the Lexington Fillies and wins over the Ashland YMCA and Ohio County.

Play was started on Sunday morning ahead of schedule because of threatening weather, and it wasn't long before the threat became a reality. Six innings of the first game of the day between the Banditos and Dover were played before the skies opened up and play was halted for an hour and a half.

The Banditos received their first tournament loss after play was resumed. In the 7-3 loss, Kim Kemp had another homerun and a double.

With the loss, the Banditos moved to the finals of the loser's bracket to face Ohio County. In a beautifully played ballgame, the Banditos were superb defensively, and put together four hits in the bottom of the sixth inning to score their three runs in the 3-0 victory.

Consecutive singles by Kim and Karol Kemp, and base hits by Susie Imes and Gay Howard were all the offense that was needed.

With the win over Ohio County, the Murray team moved into the tournament finals against Dover, Ky., a repeat of the 1974 tournament.

In the most exciting game of the tournament, the Banditos handed Dover their only loss in the past two years of State Tournament play.

The Banditos broke to a three-run lead in the second inning on a double by Kim Kemp and hits by Sheila McKenzie, Dawn Redden, Gay Howard and Rose Ross.

Dover came back in the bottom of the fourth inning to score four runs and go ahead 4-3. The Murray team came right back their next time at bat to tie the score, on base hits by Jaina Washer, Tammy Calhoun and Kim Kemp.

Dover, on a base hit, an error and a sacrifice fly scored the go-ahead run in the sixth inning making it 5-4.

In the bottom of the sixth, Dawn Redden and Gay Howard reached on errors, and a hit by Jaina Washer drove in Redden for the tying run. Susie Imes then produced the game-winning base hit that scored Gay Howard for the 6-5 victory.

Dover left the tying run on second base when Jaina Washer made a fine, running catch on a long fly ball into left field for the final out.

The day was not finished, however, for the Banditos, since they had to face the same Dover club twenty minutes later, for the "winner-take-all" championship game.

In the 6-0 loss, the Banditos managed just four hits; two by Susie Imes and one apiece by Tammy Calhoun and Rose Ross. The Murray team hit the ball extremely well, with seven hard, line drives directly at the outfielders.

The Dover defense was superb in the final game, and with timely hitting, they clinched yet another state championship entitling them to represent Kentucky at the national tournament at Satellite Beach, Fla., beginning August 4.

The Most Valuable Player Award was given to Kim Kemp of the Banditos. The long-ball-hitting shortstop had six homeruns for the tournament and a total of 12 hits.

The Murray Banditos placed four players on the All-Tournament Team roster. They were catcher Rose Ross, pitcher Dawn Redden, and outfielders Tammy Calhoun and Jaina Washer.

Dover's Amy Flaughner, Mary Wood, Tammy Ramsey and Terry Simon also made the team, with Ohio County's Sandy Boone and Holly Fleener rounding out the ten players.

Ohio County, the third place team in the tournament, was awarded the Sportsmanship Trophy.

In spite of the problems caused by the heavy rain, the tournament was a huge success, in part due to excellent officiating provided by the Bowling Green Umpiring Association, and in large part due to the enthusiasm on the part of coaches, tournament officials, and most especially, the players.

USDA Issues Decision To Amend Paducah Milk Marketing Order

MARYLAND HEIGHTS, Mo. — The U. S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) will amend the portion of the Paducah federal milk marketing order concerning the pricing of diverted milk, if the required two-thirds of affected dairy farmers approve. USDA will determine this by polling dairy farmer cooperatives in the market.

Fred L. Shipley, milk market administrator with USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service (AMS), said the proposed amendment would price diverted milk at the location of the plant actually receiving it. The present order prices milk at the plant from which it is diverted.

Shipley explained that diverted milk is milk not needed for fluid use which is shipped to unregulated dairy product manufacturing outlets and still priced under the order, based on its use.

USDA's final decision is essentially the same as the recommended, or tentative decision issued June 13. Both decisions are based on a public hearing held April 3 in Paducah at the request of Dairyman, Inc., a cooperative representing a majority of dairy farmers supplying the market.

Copies of the final decision, which is being submitted for producer approval, are available from Market Administrator F. L. Shipley, 2550 Schuetz Road, P. O. Box 3485, Maryland Heights, Mo. 63043; or from the Dairy Division, AMS, USDA, Washington, D. C. 20250.

Court Committees Subject To State Open Meeting Law

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — County fiscal court committees are subject to the 1974 open meetings law and must give notice of special meetings, the attorney general's office says.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Carl Miller issued that opinion, released today, in response to a query from Gerald Lush, editor of The News-Enterprise in Elizabethtown.

Miller said the only special meetings exempted from the law are those dealing with emergencies involving injury or damage to personal property or financial loss when delay would cause more damage.

The 1974 law requires public agencies to comply with news media requests to be notified of their meetings.

Family Claims Nagasaki A-Bomb Resulted In Death Of Father

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Just 30 years ago, 19-year-old U.S. Navy corpsman Terry G. Feil went ashore at Nagasaki to help set up a medical supply system.

This week, his wife and three children and his parents are in mourning.

Feil, a politician and businessman, died last Tuesday of what his family said was leukemia, lymphoma and generalized cancer attributable to the radioactivity he received at Nagasaki. He was 49.

The Nagasaki A-bomb, following the one on Hiroshima, was dropped Aug. 9, 1945. Feil's mother, Margaret Feil of Sacramento, said her son went ashore 10 days later from a hospital ship, the USS Sanctuary.

Feil reported that much of his hair fell out, "like practically everybody else's on the ship," Mrs. Feil said in an interview Sunday.

But there were no other immediate effects. Feil received a medical discharge, but that was because of a crushed foot and severe asthma, his mother said.

Feil returned here and graduated from the Stanford School of Law with honors. He became owner of a billing service, two employment agencies and a printing company.

In the 1960s he led the campaign of the California Freeway Association to halt the passage of freeways through cities. A member of the Republican State Central Committee, he ran for Congress in 1966 against Democratic Rep. John Moss, but lost. Gov. Ronald Reagan appointed him in 1967 to head the Advisory Board for the Bureau of Employment Agencies in the Division of Consumer Affairs.

Feil's mother said that three years ago he had a complete medical examination and was pronounced fit.

Then two years ago, he started having stomach pains.

"He thought it was an ulcer," his mother said. His hair started falling out again. He went to the Veterans Administration hospital in Martinez, near San Francisco.

There, he learned that within the last 15 years, about 60 percent of the USS Sanctuary's crew that went to Nagasaki had come down with cancer, and the incidence of heart attacks was high too, Feil's family said. There may have been others who never reported to the Veterans Administration.

"They had an autopsy. He was completely cancer-ridden except for his heart and brain," said his mother.

"I just wonder how many more of those boys are coming down with sicknesses and don't realize the cause," said Feil's mother.

Troop 77 Camps At Shakertown Over The Past Weekend

Boy Scout Troop 77 hiked and camped at Shakertown near Auburn this past weekend.

The scouts visited the museum, the many buildings, and hiked the fifteen mile trail over the 6000 acres of land once owned by the Shakers.

The local group was camped at the farm of Currie Barrow, who treated the lads to fresh whole milk, corn, and cold watermelon. During the campout advancement was made in hiking, cooking and Citizenship in the Nation.

Scouts attending the campout were Joey Grasty, Chris Grasty, John Scherer, Steve Scherer, Wayne Higgins, Chris Fazi, Mark Young, and Junior Assistant Scout Master Robert Underwood.

Troop 77 meets each Monday at 6:30 p. m. at the First Christian Church. All boys interested in scouting are invited, a troop spokesman said.
